

The CWL Fay Stender Award was created in 1982 in honor of Fay Stender, a founding mother of CWL and staunch supporter of under-represented groups and individuals. The award is presented to someone who had demonstrated feminist perspective, has served as a role model for women attorneys, and has demonstrated ability to affect change as a single individual, among other qualities shared with Fay Stender. Past recipients include Merriane Dean ('19), Rose Carmen Goldberg ('20), and Brenda Star Adams ('21).
